Lisbon, Auguſt 26. N. S.

THE Marquis de Fronteira being very much indiſpoſed, has obtained the King's Leave to lay down the Command of the Army, which his Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer on the Conde de Alvord. All things continue quiet upon our Frontiers.

Venice, Auguſt 26. We hear from Naples, That the Duke of Atri hath ſtill a Body of Troops in Abruzzo; but that he has made Propoſals of Submiſſion to Count Martinitz, which have been rejected. Great Quantities of Plate, belonging to the late Viceroy and Partiſans of the Duke of Anjou, which were concealed in Convents, have been diſcovered and ſeized. We hear likewiſe, That ſeveral Letters had been intercepted, by which it appeared, That a Conſpiracy was carrying on, by ſome of the Religious Orders, againſt the Houſe of Auſtria; but that the Leaders in it being ſent out of the Kingdom, the Influence they might have had on the People hath been ſeaſonably prevented. Count Martinitz hath received Orders to ſend a Detachment of Troops into Catalonia, if the Duke of Savoy ſhall have no Occaſion for them. There are ſeveral Letters from Turkey which ſay, the Janiſaries have depos'd the Grand Seignior, and ſet his Nephew upon the Throne, who is a Youth of about 16 Years of Age, and is to act under the Direction of Four Viſiers during his Minority. But this Advice not coming from Conſtantinople, we cannor wholly depend upon it. This City is very uneaſy at the Account we have lately received of a dreadful Peſtilence that rages at Viterbo, which has already ſwept away great Numbers of People, and is ſaid to have been occaſioned by the draining of a Lake. The State hath ſent thither to be informed of the particular Condition of that Place; and in the mean time have prohibited all Correſpondence with the Inhabitants.

Berlin, Sept. 3. The Count de Maffey, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy to this Court, had yeſterday his private Audience of Leave, and deſigns to be going from hence in few Days, having received the Duke his Maſter's Orders to return to the Army in Brabant. Monſieur Schlundt, Colonel of the Artillery, who is Priſoner at Spandaw, hath been brought to his Trial before a Court-Marſhal, which hath condemn'd him to loſe his Employments, and remain in Priſon during the King's Pleaſure. The Counteſs Piper, upon her Arrival here, having deſired to know when ſhe might have the Honour of waiting on the King, his Majeſty was pleaſed to come to the Appartment of the Grand Chamberlain's Lady, where he underſtood ſhe was to dine, and honoured her with his Company at Table. After Dinner his Majeſty invited the Counteſs to his own Appartments, where he obliged her with the Sight of his Crown and Jewels; and at her taking Leave preſented her with a Bracelet of Diamonds. By Letters from Warſaw of the 28th of Auguſt we hear, That the Diet at Lublin was adjourned again to the 22d. Deputies from that Aſſembly have ſollicited the Czar to recall the Orders he had given to General Henske for burning and ruining the Eſtates of the Partiſans of Sweden in Great Poland; which his Czariſh Majeſty complied with, to remove ſome Jealouſies that had been conceived of his Deſign to make a general Ravage through the whole Kingdom.

Leipſick, Sept. 3. The King of Sweden left his head Quarters at Ranſtadt about break of Day on the firſt Inſtant, without having communicated to any of his Domeſticks his Deſign to march till very few Hours before the Trumpets ſounded to Horſe. His Majeſty arrived that Day at Walkenwitz, where Count Wratiſlaw preſenting himſelf, the Treaty between the Emperor and his Majeſty was mutually ſigned and exchanged before the Miniſters of the Mediation. His Majeſty is advancing by ſlow Marches directly towards Poland, intending only to halt in Sileſia till he receives the Emperor's Ratification of the Treaty, with which Count Wratiſlaw is gone Poſt to Vienna. His Majeſty having declared, That no Foreign Miniſter ſhould attend him in his preſent Expedition, Monſieur de Buzenval and the Count of Monaſterole, the French and Bavarian Envoys, offered to lay aſide their Characters, and follow the King as Voluntiers; but his Majeſty rejected that Propoſal.
